The Division of Classics offers a minor in Classics for both the Bachelor of Arts and a Bachelor of Science degree. The division teaches a broad range of courses in the languages, literature, history, art, and thought of the Greco-Roman world, and the minor is made flexible so as to accompany a wide variety of majors in the university.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS:
The requirements for a classics minor are 18 credit hours, at least six of which must be at the 300 level or above, earned from among the following courses:

1. Greek and Latin courses at any level.
2. Non-language courses taught by the division that are numbered 200 or higher.

All courses may be chosen from category 1, all from category 2, or the two categories may be combined in any manner, as long as students earn the requisite 18 credit hours.
