

UKY Classics: Spring 2025 Online Course Offerings

LAT 101 ELEMENTARY LATIN, PART 1 (4 CR) 201 MTWR 8:00-8:50am, Online, Synchronous TBA

This is the first in a four-semester sequence of courses whose purpose is to introduce students to the basic vocabulary, grammar, and conceptual features of the Latin Language. We will also pay attention to the civilization, literature, art, history, and political institutions created by the ancient Romans, viewed in the contexts of the ancient, medieval, and Renaissance cultures in which the Latin language flourished. No prerequisites. UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS.

CLA 131-201 MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY (3 CR) Online, Asynchronous Dr. Laura Manning (lamanning@uky.edu)

Medical Terminology is a self-paced, computer-assisted course designed to acquaint the student with medical vocabulary that derives from Greek and Latin and to explore the etymologies through which medical prefixes, suffixes, and combining forms from those two languages came into their modern usages in the various departments of medicine. While this course is designed primarily for students planning careers in the health services, it is recommended for all students in any major or discipline who wish to improve their understanding of medical and health-related terms. Students study independently using the text and available computer resources and are tested through the semester on their competency with the material. No prerequisites.

CLA 302-201 LATIN LITERATURE 2: Vergil, Aeneid, Books 1 and 4 (3 CR) Synchronous, fully online. TR 5:00-6:15 pm. Dr. Jennifer Tunberg (jennifer.tunberg@uky.edu)

In this course we will read the first book of the Aeneid in which we enter the epic poem in medias res. Book 4 tells the love story of Dido, Queen of Carthage, and Aeneas, who (reluctantly) abandons her to her tragic death. Prerequisite: LAT 202, LAT 211 or equivalent. UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS.

MCL 591-201 LANGUAGE PRACTICUM IN COMMUNICATIVE LATIN (3 CR) Fully online, synchronous TR 5-6:15 Dr. Terence Tunberg (terence.tunberg@gmail.com)

In this course students, who already have a basic knowledge of Latin morphology and structure, and who can already read simpler unadapted Latin texts (even if using a dictionary often), will engage in directed research, activities and intensive interaction designed to help them achieve some ability to communicate orally in correct Latin on a wide range of subjects. The course, therefore, aims at fostering in its participants a more instinctive command of Latin - a command that will contribute to an easier and a quicker understanding of works written in Latin, and will give teachers of Latin (at any level) access to a wider range of strategies and activities in the classroom. Online only; Instructor's Permission Required

CLA 611-201 LATIN OF ANCIENT ROME AND THE MIDDLE AGES: De Amore et Amicitia
Fully online, synchronous MW 4:30-5:45 Dr. Milena Minkova (mmink2@uky.edu)

This course is based on extensive reading of Latin texts taken from the classical Roman period, and from such authors as Cicero Seneca, Tacitus, and Pliny the Younger. It aims to foster close familiarization with the Latin language, cultivate an appreciation for different Latin prose styles, as well as investigate the broader historical and cultural circumstances surrounding each work. The classes will be conducted in Latin, and the assignments will involve some Latin composition. The course is fully online. May be repeated to a maximum of nine hours. Online only; Instructor's Permission Required.
