This course continues the study of Latin composition, concentrating on the compound sentence, and modes of expression in subordinate clauses. Students will become acquainted with masterpieces of Latin prose from all periods. This course will be conducted mainly in Latin (with some grammar discussion in English), with the objective of further enhancing the students' abilities to express themselves in correct Latin prose. Toward the end of the course, we will read Cicero's Pro Archia poeta in its entirety, and reflect on the concept of humanitas. Prereq: CLA 501 or consent of instructor.

MCL 591-201 FOUNDATIONS FOR PROFICIENCY IN COMMUNICATIVE LATIN (3 CR)

Fully online, synchronous MWF 6:30-7:20 Dr. Terence Tunberg (terence.tunberg@gmail.com)

In this course students, who already have a basic knowledge of Latin morphology and structure, and who can already read simpler unadapted Latin texts (even if using a dictionary often), will engage in directed research, activities and intensive interaction designed to help them achieve some ability to communicate orally in correct Latin on a wide range of subjects. The course, therefore, aims at fostering in its participants a more instinctive command of Latin - a command that will contribute to an easier and a quicker understanding of works written in Latin, and will give teachers of Latin (at any level) access to a wider range of strategies and activities in the classroom. Online only; Instructor's Permission Required
