

UKY Classics: Summer 2023

Undergraduate Course Offerings

LAT 211-210 ACCELERATED LATIN
5/15/23 - 6/27/23 (Fully online)

(5 cr)
Dr. Laura Manning (Lamanning@uky.edu)

An intensive course that covers, in one semester, all the morphology, syntax, and grammar of Latin that is required to bring students with no background in the language to the level at which they can begin to read unaltered Latin texts.

CLA 131-210 MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY
6/28/23 - 8/10/23 (Asynchronous fully online)

(3 cr)
TBD

Medical Terminology is a self-paced, computer-assisted course designed to acquaint the student with medical vocabulary that derives from Greek and Latin and to explore the etymologies through which medical prefixes, suffixes, and combining forms from those two languages came into their modern usages in the various departments of medicine. While this course is designed primarily for students planning careers in the health services, it is recommended for all students in any major or discipline who wish to improve their understanding of medical and health-related terms. Students study independently using the text and available computer resources and are tested through the semester on their competency with the material. No prerequisites.

CLA 135-210 GREEK/ROMAN MYTHOLOGY
6/28/23 - 8/10/23 (Asynchronous fully online)

(3 cr)
TBD

Greek and Roman Mythology aims at introducing students to the myths of the Ancient Greek and Roman civilizations, both observing how the people of ancient times understood and used them, and how they echoed throughout the arts and literatures of many other times and places. No prerequisites. UK Core: Intellectual Inquiry in the Humanities.

CLA 191-210 CHRISTIANITY, CULTURE, AND SOCIETY (3 cr)
6/28/23 - 8/10/23 (Asynchronous fully online)

Dr. James Brusuelas

A historical introduction to the development of the Christian religion from a social and cultural perspective, from its origins in the 1st century CE to its divisions in the sixteenth century. The course examines the formation of Christian thought, polity, and religious practice and its changes as Christianity moved through different social contexts and cultural epochs up to the dawn of the modern era. No prerequisites. UK Core: Intellectual Inquiry in the Humanities.
