ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Senior Lecturer in Chinese Studies Program at the University of Kentucky (July 2017-Present)

- Teach Chinese language courses at various levels. These courses include CHI 101, CHI 102, CHI 201, CHI 202, CHI 301, CHI 302, CHI 401 and CHI 402 in regular semesters and CHI 101, CHI 102 in some Summer Sessions. In Spring 2018, I co-taught MCL 591-005: Language Practicum-Advanced Conversational Chinese, with Dr. Mathew Wells. In Summer 2019, I designed and taught Online Beginning Chinese I (CHI 101-210) for the first time. I plan to teach both Online Beginning I and Online Beginning Chinese II regularly in the future summer sessions.
- Collaborated with MCLLC department chair, Chinese program faculty and other programs in and outside Dept. of MCLLC, student organizations to organize events and performances for all students on campus. Major activities include:
 - o Bi-weekly UK Chinese Club's event on Thursday in the Student Center. During the pandemic, in Fall 2020, all the events were held via Zoom regularly. (2018-November, 2020)
 - o Collaborated with Dr. Jeanmarie Rouhier-Willoughby, chair of Dept. of MCLLC and Dr. Nancy Johnson, Associate Dean of International Affairs at Gatton College to promote the MCLLC language courses. (December, 2019 – January, 2020)
 - o Proposed and organized the Chinese New Year Week event for the entire campus, and promoted it with UK Chinese Club and UK PR group on UKnow. Link to the news article: <https://uknow.uky.edu/uk-happenings/campus-community-invited-ring-chinese-new-year> (January 6-22, 2020)
 - o Proposed and organized International Poetry Night with UK International Village. (February 19, 2020).
 - o Coordinate ALEX TA's work assignment and give advice on teaching. (Fall 2019-Spring 2020)
 - o Prepared together with students to perform at the Chinese Thanksgiving event. Contacted alumni for their videos of their past learning experience in our Chinese Studies Program (Fall 2019).
 - o Prepared students' performance and joined the Music and Poetry night with Russian Program (Spring 2019).
 - o Collaborate with UK Radio Station to air CHI 102 students' poetry reciting. (Spring 2018)
 - o Worked as director of UK Conversational Chinese Summer program. Preparation work started in the fall semester included working with UK Education Abroad Office, UK Confucius Institute, organizing information sessions for students,

- writing recommendation letters, inviting colleagues in Chinese Studies Program and UK Education Abroad student ambassador to promote the program. During the summer program, I lived with students on the university campus in China and gave them guidance on a daily basis. (2013, 2016, 2018)
- Prepared students' performance for the yearly Chinese Speaking & Writing Contest in November and judged students' work. (2015 – 2019).
 - Designed a T-shirt for the MCLLC Chinese Studies Program and made several hundred ones with UK Confucius Institute, and handed them out at CI's event (fall 2017).
- Promote Chinese language courses for the Chinese Studies Program in order to increase enrollment and student retention.
- In Spring 2017, I wrote to College of Arts & Sciences PR group introducing the dynamic learning environment of my CHI 101 course. At the beginning of Fall 2017 semester, The PR group made a video for one of my CHI 101 courses and wrote an article talking about students' learning experience.
 - Both the video and the article were published in UKnow Newsletter (Nov.6, 2017) and UK College of Arts & Sciences website (Oct. 24, 2017)
 - Link to the video at college website:

 - In Spring 2017, I started the process of proposing Beginning Chinese online courses. Later during the preparation stage, I discussed with Beth Gaunce, Online Campus Manager at KET about online teaching method. I worked with Sarah Asher, instructional designer in UK Informational Technology Services and Alex Cutadean, UK IS Technical Support Specialist in Distance Learning to develop the online teaching materials. I scheduled regularly with UK Faculty Media Depot to make videos and audios for the online courses. In Summer 2019, I taught one of the courses online.
 - In Spring 2018, I went to Prof. Liang Luo's CHI 331 to advertise CHI 101 with my students.
 - In Fall 2018 semester, I collaborated with UK Confucius Institute and designed T-shirt for our Chinese Studies Program. The T-shirts and program flyers were handed out to students at one of the CI events on campus.
 - In Fall 2019, I proposed Business Chinese course for CHI 202 and discussed it at the program meeting. I also shared the syllabus and teaching outline with my colleagues.

- At October 2019's program meeting, I suggested that we reach out to Law school and Business School to advertise our Chinese language courses. Later in December, I wrote to Prof. Nancy Johnson, the Associate Dean at Gatton College to promote Chinese language courses. And worked with Dr. Jeanmarie Rouhier-Willoughby, our department chair to compose a letter introducing all the language programs in our department to Gatton College, hoping to attract their students to study language for their business profession.
- Contact alumni and contribute to Department Newsletters regularly.
- Faculty advisor of UK Chinese Club in the Department of MCLLC. (2018 – Present). The three student officers are from in my Chinese classes. During the process of setting up, I worked with them to submit the Constitution of the Chinese Club to the University Student Organization and participated in the UK CSA training each time as required. The UK Chinese Club was set up in October 2018. Our mission and event calendar can be found at MCLLC MClub. Major events include: Pumpkin decoration (Fall 2018), Field trip to local orchard (Fall 2018), Built partnership with Project Pengyou UK Chapter (Spring 2019), Monthly get-together for Chinese conversation practice (Spring 2019), Help MCLLC Chinese Studies Program to promote the Chinese New Year Week (January 21-24, Spring 2020), Biweekly Conversational Hour at Gatton Student Center Starbucks (Spring 2020), Monthly Movie Night (Spring 2020) and Biweekly cultural event via Zoom (Fall 2020).
- Organizer and judge of KWLA yearly Showcase in March for the Chinese group. My work included: (1) Review and grade students' display of their projects. (2) Listen to students' speeches and give interview afterwards. (3) Organize sessions for student activities in the afternoon. (2017 - Present)
- Attended and presented in KWLA conference (September 2017, 2018, 2019)
- Taught and designed activities for the MCLLC World Language Day High School Open House. (November 2016, 2017 & 2018, October 2019)
